Intraday Commentary From Jim Bianco

Is the bond market "waking up?" The MOVE was 66 on October 31, 81 yesterday.

This might be helping raise bond volatility. Exactly 50/50 less than a month before the meeting. I'll have to look, but seeing the probability of a Fed move exactly 50/50 less than a month before the meeting is unusual (rare). Usually, the issue is settled about what they are going to do this close the meeting.
