*US 3Q GDP ADVANCED ESTIMATE REPORT CANCELED

The advanced report means the first release. I guess that leaves the door open to get the Q3 GDP report later on, in what would have been a future revision.

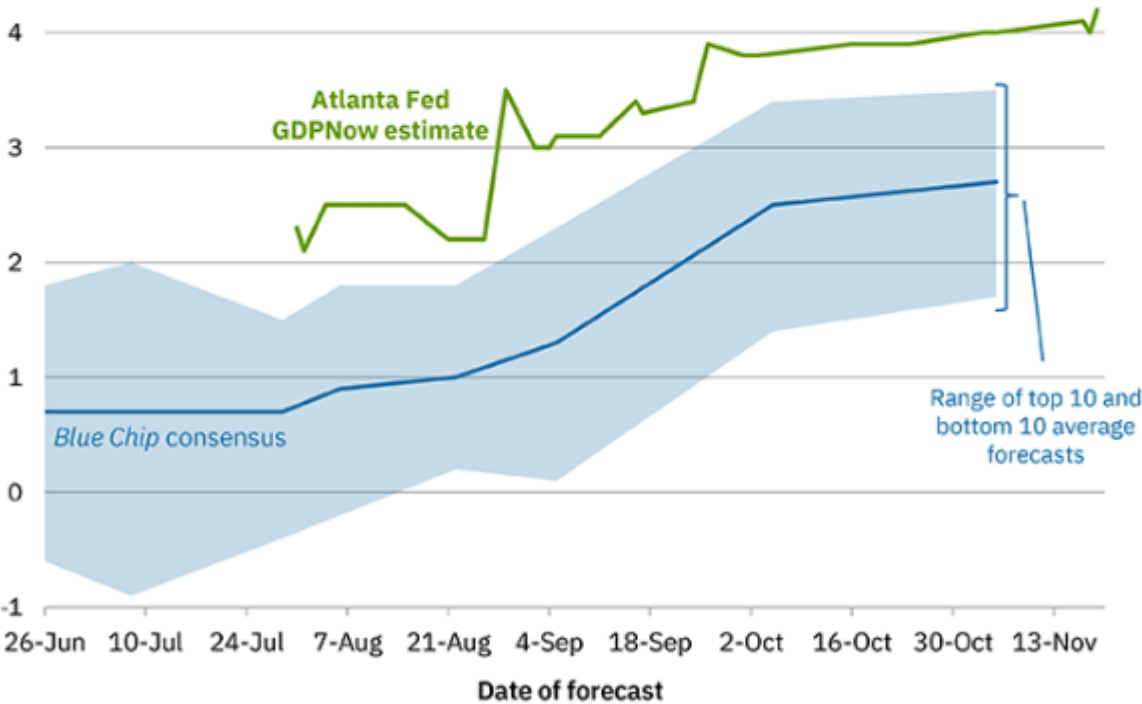

Trump's not going to like it because the Atlanta Fed GDPNow, which has been tracking the data that has been released, was showing the 3rd quarter was going to be a big number. Now we'll never know.

Latest estimate: 4.2 percent — November 21, 2025

The GDPNow model estimate for real GDP growth (seasonally adjusted annual rate) in the third quarter of 2025 is 4.2 percent on November 21, unchanged from November 19 after rounding. After recent releases from the US Census Bureau, the US Bureau of Labor Statistics, and the National Association of Realtors, a slight decrease in the nowcast of third-quarter real personal consumption expenditures growth was offset by an increase in the nowcast of third-quarter real gross private domestic investment growth from 4.8 percent to 4.9 percent.

The next GDPNow update is Tuesday, November 25.
